Scientist Whose Wife Was Injured by COVID Vaccine Tells FDA: 'Please Do Not Give This to Kids'

Brian Dressen, Ph.D., who is a chemist with an extensive background in researching and assessing the degree of efficacy in new technologies, told the U.S. Food and Drug Administration Pfizer's vaccine "failed any reasonable risk-benefit calculus in connection with children."

"When you approve this [vaccine] for 5 to 11-year-olds, you are assigning innocent kids and uninformed parents to a fate that will undoubtedly rob some of them of their lives."

The Defender is experiencing censorship on many social channels. Be sure to stay in touch with the news that matters by subscribing to our top news of the day. It's free.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration's (FDA) advisory committee on Tuesday endorsed Pfizer's COVID vaccine for children ages 5 to 11, despite strong objections raised during the meeting by multiple scientists and physicians.

Brian Dressen, Ph.D., is one of the scientists who testified during the 8-hour hearing.

Dressen is also the husband of Brianne Dressen, who developed a severe neurological injury during the Utah-based portion of the U.S. AstraZeneca COVID vaccine trial in 2020. After being injured by the first dose, Brianne withdrew from the trial.

During his 3-minute testimony, Dressen, a chemist with an extensive background in researching and assessing the degree of efficacy in new technologies, told the FDA advisory panel Pfizer's vaccine "failed any reasonable risk-benefit calculus in connection with children."

Dressen said:

"Your decision is being rushed, based on incomplete data from underpowered trials, insufficient to predict rates of severe and long-lasting adverse reactions. I urge the committee to reject the EUA [Emergency Use Authorization] modification and direct Pfizer to perform trials that will decisively demonstrate that the benefits outweigh the risks for children. I understand firsthand the impact that you will or will not have with the decision you're going to make today."

ORDER TODAY: Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.'s New Book — 'The Real Anthony Fauci'

Dressen told the FDA how his wife was severely injured last November by a single dose of a COVID vaccine administered during a clinical trial. He said:

“Because study protocol requires two doses, she was dropped from the trial, and her access to the study app deleted. Her reaction is not described in the recently released clinical trial report — 266 participants are described as having an adverse event leading to discontinuation, with 56 neurological reactions tallied.”

He said he and his wife have since met participants from other vaccination trials — including Pfizer’s trial for 12- to 15-year-olds — who suffered similar reactions and fate.

Dressen said:

“Injured support groups are growing. Memberships number into at least the tens of thousands. We must do better. Those injured in a trial are a critical piece of vaccine safety data. They are being tossed aside and forgotten. The FDA has known first-hand about her case and thousands of others. The FDA has also stated that their own systems are not identifying this issue and that VAERS is not designed to identify any multi-symptom signals. The system is broken.”

Dressen said his family’s lives have changed forever. “The clinical trials are not appropriately evaluating the data,” he said. “The FDA, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the drug companies continue to deflect the persistent and repeated cries for help and acknowledgment, leaving the injured as collateral damage.”

He added:

“Until we appropriately care for those already injured, acknowledge the full scope of injuries that are happening to adults, please do not give this to kids. You have a very clear responsibility to appropriately assess the risks and benefits to these vaccines. It is obvious that isn’t happening.

“The suffering of thousands continues to repeatedly fall on deaf ears at the FDA. Each of you hold a significant responsibility today and know that without a doubt, when you approve this for the 5 to 11-year-old’s, you are signing innocent kids and uninformed parents to a fate that will undoubtedly rob some of them of their life.”

In an interview with KUTV on Tuesday, Brianne said her kids will not receive a COVID-19 vaccine if approved. “I will react to the vaccine regardless of the brand, and so if my kids have this same genetic makeup, there is the high potential now that the same thing could happen to them,” she said.

Since his wife's injury — diagnosed by doctors at the National Institutes of Health — the Dressens have met with other trial participants and families with children who also believe they were injured by the COVID vaccines. They formed a support group and website called, C19 Vax Reactions, to share their stories of vaccine injuries.

On June 26, Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) held a news conference to discuss adverse reactions related to the COVID vaccines — giving individuals, including Brianne, who have been “repeatedly ignored” by the medical community a platform to share their stories.

According to KUTV, the group continues to push the FDA and CDC for answers and help. Largely ignored, they reached out to Utah Senator Mike Lee, who wrote a letter to the CDC and FDA on their behalf.

Here is a blog with extensive injuries and videos updated weekly - this is criminal in ALL AGE GROUPS

The level of insanity only increases with scientists now reduced to begging so they don't give drugs which have no substantive benefit to stop killing and harming people. Omg.

These drugs offer no benefit per vaccine trial data and do not stop symptoms, data clearly shows these drugs induce the same symptoms they are purported to suppress with far greater severity and rates than individuals experience with a positive PCR test (which is unsuitable for detection of Sars CoV2):

This is not science - it is a criminal and deliberate program to cause great individual and public harm under the guise of public health coordinated with a plan to destroy the American economy and allow corrupt power operatives to rearrange societal structure at its core. The contempt of those administering these programs against the interests of the American and global citizens is open and palpable

Its covert war of the most COWARDLY kind

Munchausen syndrome by proxy on steroids

Very sorry for this man's injuries - we don't need trials or tests - we need to expose testing and attribution fraud and end this ENTIRELY.

NEVER consent

Beautifully and powerfully stated, Rose. But I don't think the war is covert anymore, it's right out in the open and many people simply refuse to see it. We are dealing with mass psychosis and pure evil.

Yes, it's out in the open for anyone to see who takes the time to look. But far too many people still trust the government and what they see on the "Evening News with (fill in blank with talking head)"

I've given up on the "masses" waking up. That would have been the best and easiest way of stopping this. Let's hope that a minority of people fighting back is enough to end this. Or perhaps the Great Reset will crash and burn on its own. Luckily, Soros, Schwab, Biden, etc. are pretty old. Gates will turn 66 this week (his mother died at 64 of cancer).

Rose → CK • 4 days ago

They are waking up, I watch it silently all around me. The media doesn't want you to know it though because then they would lose the peer pressure/isolation card to keep people in line. Its not that much of minority, most I know who went along to barter their freedoms back don't want any more shots.

Rose → Kathrin • 4 days ago

I agree, however once it really goes overt, it will no longer be possible to keep the illusion. I am not worried this is going to ultimately succeed, its what will happen in the desperation of the fall which is my concern. I do believe that this will turn, I can only imagine what is REALLY going on behind the scenes, its hard enough just sorting out the contradictions and red herrings thrown up all around. Sending everyone here prayers and light.

Rose, Thank you for sharing your wisdom here. I'm onboard with you. 100%

So many of us feel isolated bc our immediate neighbors and families are all in the trance. Some of them believe I am the problem. Yet I would help them with all my early treatment in a heartbeat. Keep praying for good folks to wake up, bc one can not reason with them.

Jesus taught "when you are purified you will perceive things invisible to the unpurified. The dark cloud of matter will no longer obscure the eye of your soul." What is happening now is an illustration of how most can't see the truth because for them it is obscured by materialistic thinking, which includes injecting a toxic material into the body in the hope of finding safety in it.

I do not understand what it is that seems to be embedded in the culture, but when you have a vaccine injury you become a leper. Few believe you and no one helps. I think sometimes they wish you were dead. I am not exaggerating. You have to experience the nightmare to believe the hell you are forced into on top of the initial physical injury. We have a family member severely injured 20 years ago by the insane pediatric vaccine schedule aggressively pushed by the CDC. So aggressively pushed that when we started refusing the poisons, the industrial medical practitioners unleashed child protective services on us. Yes, we became the criminals, the hunted ones. They wanted to institutionalize and medicate (at tax payer expense) rather than rehabilitate and educate in our loving home filled with extended family (at our expense). The reactions of the powers that be is inexplicable in the context of common decency. But when it comes to the truth about vaccines, it doesn't seem like common decency is in play. The unavoidable fact that due to the massive experimental vax program world wide now taking place, my heart breaks over the suffering that has and will continue to happen due to the dominance of the Mengele-spirit that has overtaken our public health agencies.

As Dr Dressen said and I confirm "I wouldn't wish this on my worst enemy"

AS DR BRESSEN SAID AND I COMMIT I WOULDN'T WISH THIS ON MY WORST ENEMY

I tried to tell some liberal friends of mine about the vaccine injuries and they disagreed, actually they didn't just disagree they got angry and said the so called injuries are just Covid long haulers

3 ^ | v • Reply • Share ›

Rose Martyn → Brenda • 2 days ago • edited

I have really pondered this reaction, which I find al too common. I have some theories. First off, if someone is really suffering, isn't lending a hand the minimally decent thing to do? Since virtually everyone thinks they are minimally decent, when confronted by the medical maiming of the innocent, a decent person who does not want to help has to either deny the truth or use a blame-the-victim justification to ignore the truth. Otherwise they will have to self-identify as an indecent person which is not likely. Bottom line is, and this is probably the most painful thing I have had to deal with, no matter the compassion that they espouse in their political rhetoric, most people do not like to sacrifice for others.

Unfortunately in dealing with the fallout from our family's vaccine injury (you know the thing that the medical industry acts like doesn't exist) it has become distressingly easy for me to understand how the Nazi party could so efficiently identify, collect, and kill six million innocents --they had a gigantic population of accomplices help them.

Even a close relative of mine with no wife or children and oodles of assets would not help with some of the costs of communication therapy. How did he justify his refusal? He paid his taxes and we should get the government to cover it. (Yeah, like we we didn't try. I guess he thought we were irresponsible?) When I explained the ways in which the government has evaded this responsibility, he got very angry and yes, denied that vaccines caused injury and the CDC said so. I have found this to be a very common reaction-- the welfare system will cover it so I am not going to because I have paid my taxes. And anyway the experts say there is no such thing as you are testifying to. While there are others who do not want to support those they feel are pretty useless although they generally do not express this in public but it may slip out after a drink or otherwise have let their guard down. Still others are social Darwinists who think you are genetically deficient so it is all to the good that there won't be more of you.

So my whole social circle has changed. But I have to tell you, IT IS SO MUCH RICHER. I love the people who in my circle now. There are a lot of delights that unfold when the light shines.

And can you even believe RFK Jr and the team at CHD!! So brilliant. So brave. I love them for it.

So how many techs and scientists and managers working on these contrived studies knew this but are not about to say a word. Even though it most assuredly meant innocent people would be maimed because of the fraud they participated in. Dozens, hundreds, even more? This is another signal that systemic scientific corruption runs deep and wide. I am not about to pass judgement on these "just-following-orders" workers who need a paycheck, rather we need to figure out ways to encourage, reward, and protect whistleblowers without bringing along the false witnesses with them.

use our collective energy in a constructive manner to press for a replacement for this unmitigated disaster at our public health, and scientific research agencies. It will save the whole world untold suffering. How might we get the ball rolling in that direction?

It has become more than obvious that big pharma, the FDA, CDC, AMA and joey do not care who they murder or how many they murder. Therefore, it is up to the parents to refuse these horrible mRNA injections, which are still extremely experimental, maybe. In one sense they are not experimental since big pharma, gates and fauci know that many will be severely harmed or murdered by these poisons.

This entire charade fits well with big pharma's and the modern medical system's desire to keep people sick and ailing so that they will need endless death care. More disease equals more profits. Your kids will become life long slaves of big pharma and the gutless, putrid doctors who are afraid to do the right thing. If they survive to become adults, they will require endless srone-age medical care and big pharma drugs and will never get healthy again.

We need a Nuremberg Trials 2.0 to start like YESTERDAY!!!! This is such an abomination of humanity, it simply breaks my heart. Governor Newsom, Fauci and others will cause incalculable harm.

If this is allowed to stand, I'm going to openly encourage all Germans to renounce their guilt about Hitler. Why should Germans bear all this guilt when we have a current, ongoing modern march towards another Hitleresque world, this time a medical tyranny. Criminal doesn't describe this. Next time someone attacks a German about "how could you let Hitler do what he did?" How are we any different? Maybe it's time for a modern day George Washington to come along? I'm lost for words, how else do we stop this? The harm to kids going forward is too painful to even think about!
