WASHINGTON, D.C.— Yesterday, Members of the U.S. Senate and House, together with leaders of the Sovereignty Coalition, held a Capitol Hill press conference to voice their opposition to the imminent adoption of two World Health Organization (WHO) treaties that are set to be agreed to in just 37 days. Participants denounced the Biden administration's intention to approve these treaties that surrender U.S. sovereignty, compromise states' rights, and undermine, if not terminate, constitutionally guaranteed freedoms.

They also presented new poll results showing likely voters' strong opposition to the sorts of treaties being stealthily negotiated in Geneva. Coalition representatives announced a new "Not Now" emergency campaign aimed at heightening public awareness of the WHO's plans with the goal of deferring the international approval of those accords and requiring the U.S.

Senate to provide its advice and consent prior to the Biden Administrations assent the Pandemic Treaty and amendments to the International Health Regulations.

Those participating included Senator Ron Johnson (R-WI), Representatives Ralph Norman (SC-5), Bob Good (VA-5), Chris Smith (NJ-4), Andy Biggs (AZ-5), Chip Roy (TX-21), Matt Rosendale (MT-2), Paul Gosar (AZ-9), Tom Tiffany (WI-7) and Scott Perry (PA-10) and the Sovereignty Coalition's: Matt Schlapp (Chairman of the Conservative Political Action Coalition), Jenny Beth Martin (President, Tea Party Patriots Action), Tony Perkins (President, Family Research Council), Kris Ullman (President, Eagle Forum), Reggie Littlejohn (President, Women's Rights Without Frontiers and Anti-Globalist International) and Frank Gaffney (Executive Chairman, Center for Security Policy). Watch the press conference HERE.

Notably, the Sovereignty Coalition released the results of a new national poll of 1,000 likely voters conducted last week by McLaughlin and Associates. When asked "Do you want decisions about your country's future made by an international official appointed by the Chinese government or our present system over the "global governance" treaties?" 71 percent of voters chose our present system over the "global governance" treaties. They also expressed a preference for the WHO treaties over one that doesn't by a

I will contact my legislators. As for the question "Do you want decisions about your health made by people you elect, or an international official appointed by the Chinese Communist Party?" , well, my answer would be neither. The decisions should be made between the patients and their doctors. Also, as for the title "Not Now", I think it should actually be "NOT EVER"!

Communists are in control of the Biden administration, both from within and externally. From Barack Hussein Obama, Valerie Jarrett and Antony Blinken to Xi Jinping. Obama promised that he would "fundamentally change America" and he has succeeded. The Demonrats in our Congress hate our Constitution and have sold us out, And this includes the complicit RINOs.
